Respectfully presenting petition for action of court and for cause as follows:

The defendant was to resolve all outstanding warrants by November 13, 2022, 60 days from the commencement of pretrial release. According to a criminal records check conducted on December 1, 2022, the following warrants remain outstanding:

- 16th District Court, Livonia. Ct. 1 Felony Operating While Impaired- 3rd Offense, Case No.: 21L01224FD. On October 13, 2022, a warrant was issued after the defendant failed to appear for Arraignment.
- Rocky River Police Department, Ohio. Ct. 1 Civil Infraction Speeding, Case No.: 2TRD24053. On October 28, 2002, a fail to appear bench warrant was issued.

The defendant's credit, he had numerous misdemeanor traffic warrants out of the 36th District Court in Detroit, and two misdemeanor warrants out of the 52-4 District Court in Troy that he has resolved since commencing pretrial release. Pretrial Services has directed the defendant to resolve the above outstanding warrants on numerous occasions. Pretrial Services has also notified defense counsel of the outstanding warrants on multiple occasions requesting their assistance in timely clearing of the warrants; although an appearance by counsel has been filed for the felony OWI charge, the defendant has not presented himself to the Court to date as is required. They were further advised if all warrants were not resolved by November 30, 2022, the Court would be notified.

PRAYING THAT THE COURT WILL ORDER a Bond Review Hearing to be held on Tuesday, December 13, 2022, at 2:30 p.m. so that Mr. Sutton can answer as to the above noted violation. If the warrants noted are cleared prior to any scheduled hearing date, a request to cancel the hearing will be made by Pretrial Services.
